

Volunteering

As we reflect on the baptism of Christ we remember that we are all called to a life of service. Over the next few weeks we are considering the work that is done in a voluntary capacity at St Oswald's and inviting everyone to consider how they might be called to serve and to strengthen their involvement in the life of the church.

Please reflect prayerfully on what you do or could do to support church life.

Save the Date!

Saturday 22nd February, 6:30pm

Concert given by the Triptych Singers, followed by food!

Prayers for the week

For many people to follow a call to service within the church and of thanksgiving to those who already give a great deal of their time.

People who are looking for a sense of direction in their lives;
