

Communion

Communion will be offered in both kinds but by intinction. The president will dip the bread into the chalice and offer it to you in the way that bread alone is offered. If you prefer to receive the bread only please hold your hands out clasped together until the president offers you the bread without intinction.

The Electoral Roll

The revision is now complete – the folder is available in church for you to check your details.

Annual Church Meetings Sunday 15th May

Please do join us for the meeting to elect church wardens and the annual parochial church meeting which will begin with our church service at 10am and continue afterwards in the Hall at 11:30. It will be an important opportunity to hear about how St Oswald's is faring in these changed times since we last met in person, and to consider our future life and ministry. Sadly, both Tracy and Nick are stepping down as churchwarden this year and so we will need to elect 2 new wardens. There will also be 4 PCC members to be elected. Please consider whether you might be called to fill one of these roles or whether you might encourage someone else to stand. Contact Alison for more details and to arrange a private conversation or join her for coffee after today's 10am service for a brief introduction to the work of the wardens and PCC. The Annual Report is now available on the church website and hard copies are available in church for those who would prefer this. Please read the report before the meeting as reports will not be read at the meeting.

Collections

As always, we are very grateful for the offerings that you make to support the work of the church. We now have a collection 'box' that will receive your gifts by tapping a credit or debit card. Please use it before or after the service if this is a good way for you to make your contribution. Please be patient as it takes a little while for your payment to register. Please also consider making a regular direct transfer into our bank account or taking a pack of envelopes to support your weekly giving.
